PLEASE READ THE FOLLOWING BEFORE SIGNING AND DATING THIS FORM.

St George Freight Pty Ltd and its nominees and/or subagents are appointed by you to act as your registered Self-assessed clearance declaration communicators for the purposes of the Customs Act 1901 as amended, at all places in the Commonwealth. A false or misleading statement to the Australian Customs Service and AQIS is an offence and may involve heavy penalties, including forfeiture, destruction or re-export of any goods concerned at your expense. In line with Customs requirements and The Privacy Act 1988 we must tell you why we are collecting this information, how we will use it and whether you have to give it to us. This information is required to ensure importers comply with Australian Customs, Quarantine, Health, Wildlife and Currency laws. We request this information under the Customs Act 1901, the Quarantine Act 1908, the Wildlife Protection (Regulation of Exports and Imports) Act 1982 and the Financial Transaction Reports Act 1988. St George Freight also needs the information to ensure all SAC declaration requirements are met, including the calculation of the right amount of duties and taxes for alcohol, tobacco and tobacco products imports. Any questions you do not answer will be asked by a staff member of ST George Freight. St George Freight Pty Ltd will not disclose any information you give to third parties, except when authorized or required by law.

This statement must be completed in English. If handwritten, all errors and alterations must be initialed.

I declare that the above particulars are to the best of my knowledge true and correct and that I have understood the questions contained in this form and the answers provided to those questions are true and correct. I remove St. George Freight Pty Ltd from all liability that may arise from providing false or misleading information and agree to all terms and conditions of St. George Freight. This is a legally binding document and may be used as evidence.
